This form must be completed and signed by the student, and either the instructor or the guidance counselor and returned to the ACE Programs office on or before the official withdrawal deadline (Please refer to "Dates and Deadlines" link found on our website www.genesee.edu/ACE).

Students are still responsible for payment for the course despite withdrawal, and will be unable to obtain a transcript or register for future courses at Genesee Community College until payment is made. Failure to withdraw from a course by the deadline will result in a failing grade if the student does not complete course requirements. For more information please call the ACE Programs office at 585-345-6801.
