

Genesee Community College
920-Criminal Justice–Certificate
2008-2009

General Curriculum Information

Note: This program cannot be completed in one year.

Prerequisite Requirements: The only restriction on course sequence is that the prerequisite requirements as listed with course description in the catalog must be followed. Please consult the current catalog or an advisor to clarify any questions you may have concerning this.

English (by placement): Satisfactory completion of the writing skills exam is a prerequisite for ENG101. Students who do not satisfactorily complete the writing exam must register for ENG091 and/or ENG100 prior to completing their six (6) hour English sequence.

Mathematics (by placement): Mathematics placement is based on the ACT, ASSET, or COMPASS placement test.

Reading Proficiency Requirement: All students will be required to demonstrate proficiency in reading through testing prior to earning a degree or certificate. Students who do not meet the required standard will be expected to begin immediately.

ALL OF THE COURSES CAN BE APPLIED TO AN A.A.S. DEGREE IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE.
