

LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCE:
HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE (AA) PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who successfully complete the program will:

1. Demonstrate quantitative reasoning skills in mathematics.
2. Utilize scientific methods to explore social and natural phenomena.
3. Develop sufficient background in a Humanities or Social Sciences discipline to qualify for upper division study.
4. Demonstrate the skills and knowledge needed to think critically and employ creative problem-solving.
5. Employ effective communication skills, both verbal and written.
6. Demonstrate the knowledge and skills required to be an informed citizen in the global community.
7. Demonstrate the verbal and written skills required to communicate in a foreign language.
8. Analyze artistic and literary expression.