

INDIVIDUALIZED STUDIES (AAS) PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the AAS in Individualized Studies program, the graduate will be able to:

1. Apply effective oral communication skills in various contexts.
2. Write effectively in various contexts.
3. Solve college-level mathematical problems.
4. Demonstrate competency in the use of various computer applications.
5. Apply the scientific method to a problem related to a social science discipline.
6. Apply the scientific method to a problem related to a natural science discipline.
7. Describe the importance of particular historical events in an American, international, or global context.
8. Describe the importance of particular historical events in an American, international, or global context.