

HUMAN SERVICES (AS) PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the AS Human Services program, the graduate will be able to:

1. Apply critical thinking skills required to be an effective human services helper.
2. Demonstrate adequate preparation for career development and/or baccalaureate degree program success through the acquisition of a solid foundation in the human services field.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of the basic theories and techniques for effectively helping people as an associate's degree human services graduate.
4. Utilize specific interpersonal competencies necessary for effective functioning in a helping capacity as gained through experiential training.
5. Employ proficient written and verbal communication skills, including the appropriate uses of technology.
6. Identify the full spectrum of a diverse community and discuss appropriate techniques for working with diverse individuals.
7. Recognize and apply the ethical standards within the human services field.