

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (AAS) PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Describe the basic business functions and how they interact in the business environment.
2. Apply basic theories and techniques used to ensure successful business outcomes.
3. Explain today's interdependent global marketplace and the impact on business
4. Apply critical thinking skills to be able to recommend appropriate business outcomes in business situations.
5. Employ effective communication skills.
6. Apply business learning in real world business environments.
7. Apply a variety of organizational best practices within a business context, such as ethical, socially responsible or diversity based practices.